

A Service of Grateful Memory
and Faith-Filled Anticipation

Vivian Jean McCarty

1927–2010

*October 2, 2010
Federated Church
West Lafayette, Indiana*

Order of Service

Prelude Mark Buche

Greeting & Statement of Purpose Rev. David Mills

Invocation

Reading from the Psalter: Psalm 23

Reading from the Old Testament: Proverbs 31:10-31

Reading from the Catholic Epistles: 1 Thessalonians 5

* Reading from the Gospel: John 5:24-29

Homily Rev. David Mills

Reflection and Anticipation Mark Buche

When you are dismissed from your row, come to the altar and light a candle.

Please associate with this candle some memory of how Jean brightened your life, as well as a symbol of your anticipation of meeting her again.

*After you have lit your candle,
please return to your seat.*

* Benediction

Postlude Mark Buche

*Please remain seated until your row is dismissed.
The family will be available in the narthex.*

* congregation standing

Vivian Jean McCarty

Vivian Jean McConnell McCarty, 83, of 2901 Soldiers Home Road, WL, died Monday, Aug. 30, 2010, at her Spring Hill, FL, residence.

Born Aug. 15, 1927, in Cleveland, Ohio, she was the daughter of the late Wilber and Vivian McConnell. She graduated from Cleveland Heights High School in 1945 and from Ohio Wesleyan University.

She married Robert G. McCarty on Feb. 17, 1951, in East Cleveland, Ohio. He preceded her in death April 26, 2001.

Mrs. McCarty was a teacher in the Cleveland school system. She and her husband were foster parents.

She was a member of Federated Church in West Lafayette, Chi Omega sorority, John Purdue Club and Tanglewood Country Club.

Mrs. McCarty enjoyed playing bridge and golf, Bible study and traveling.

Survivors include a daughter, Megann Zeigler (husband: John) of Rio Rancho, N.M.; and one son, Robert W. McCarty of Atlanta, Ga.

Also surviving are a son-in-law, C. Ray Brown of West Lafayette; granddaughters, Jennifer Bogan (husband: Jackson) of Lafayette, Kathryn Brown and Cami Brown, both of West Lafayette; a great-granddaughter, Halle Bogan of Lafayette. A daughter, Elizabeth J. "Beth" Brown, and a brother, Tommy McConnell, preceded her in death.

Donations may be made in her name to the American Cancer Society, American Heart Association or Federated Church of West Lafayette.